Hidden Cove Lodge sits on a small bay in Johnstone Strait on northern Vancouver Island. This eco-resort welcomes guests to the rainforest wilderness of northern Vancouver Island. The property offers several types of accommodations, from lodge rooms to cabins and oceanfront suites. The main lodge offers rooms as well as a lounge, dining area, boardroom and den/library. An oceanfront deck invites guests to look out over the private bay. The resort is completely off-grid and has an excellent power system in place more than adequate to servicing the property. There is good road access via Telegraph Cove Rd to a 3km road through Crown land that leads to Hidden Cove. This is a well-managed resort run by the original owners who after 35 years have decided it is time to pass it along. A spectacular location, breath-taking scenery, well-equipped facilities and access to local services make this a great opportunity.
